MUMBAI INCIDENT IS UNFORTUNATE

It is really traumatic to watch every now and then, innocent people becoming victims of terror attacks in different parts of the country. Several Indian states have been subject to regular violence for several years by terrorist organizations based in India and abroad. States like Jammu & Kashmir, Chhattisgarh, West Bengal, Bihar, Andhra Pradesh, Orissa and others are also reporting loss of human lives due to regrettable human actions. Mumbai incidence cannot be seen in isolation. Entire country is engulfed into severe administrative problems due to indifferent attitude of the governing bodies towards the common man of the country. Administration is not able to visualize the long term domino effect of its actions and inactions.

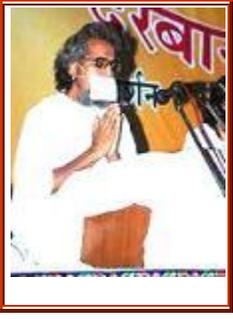

We need to settle the challenging issues to the full contentment of masses in the interest of the nation. The government must operate with perseverance and candor to sort out the issues in their formation stage itself. It is adequately resourced to resolve issues keeping in mind the general public interest. Country has the world's best military power, police force and intelligence network. At the same time, we also have intellectuals and peace loving individuals in every segment of our country. On top of everything, we have a democratic setup of governance. It is really astounding to note that in spite of every possible blessing from the almighty, we are one of the worst terrorism affected nation in the world.

Ahimsa Foundation desires the governance to create unique cells to resolve issues relating to public disappointment. Authorities may also seek the involvement of civic society in their endeavor to bring lasting solutions. Unless we resolve the issues, Mumbai like incidences will not end irrespective of the quality and preparedness of our intelligence services and efficacy of police / military. Innocent people will keep dying on the road. Individual politic aspirations should not play over national interest. We at Jainsamaj denounce all terror attacks and express our deep condolences towards the victims of 13th July, 2011 tragedy at Mumbai. May their soul rest in peace with a hope that no further lives fall prey in the hands of terror.

पैसा लेकर मार्ग दिखाने वाले गुरु नहीं : दिनेश मुनि. श्री वर्धमान स्थानकवासी जैन श्रावक संघ

सूरत। दिनांक - 15 जुलाई 2011 गुरुपूर्णिमाका दिवस गुरुओं को वंदन करने और उनके प्रति कृतज्ञता ज्ञापित करने का दिन है। आज के दौर में पुराने गुरुओं की जरूरत है महसूस हो रही है, पैसा लेकर मार्ग दिखाने वाला गुरु नहीं हो सकता, गुरु वह है जो मोक्ष का मार्ग दिखाता है, आत्मा को परमात्मा से एकाकार करवाता है। उपरोक्त विचार गुरुपूर्णिमाके पावन अवसर पर सूरत शहर के भटार रोड़ स्थित महावीर भवन के 'गुरु पुष्कर देवेन्द्र सभागार' में उपस्थित श्रद्धालुजनों को संबोधित करते हुए श्रमण संघीय सलाहकार श्री दिनेश मुनि ने व्यक्त किए।

जीवन में गुरु का महत्व समझाते हुए श्रमण संघीय सलाहकार श्री दिनेश मुनि ने आगे कहा कि भौतिकवाद के प्रभाव के कारण आज गुरुओं की प्रतिष्ठा में कमी आई है, अच्छे गुरुओं का अभाव हुआ है, आज के तथाकथित गुरु आर्थिक लाभ के लिए शिक्षा प्रदान कर रहे हैं इसलिए उनका महत्व घट रहा है। गुरुओं की कमी की एक प्रमुख वजह पाश्चात्य शिक्षा का अंधानुकरण और शिक्षा में नैतिकता का खत्म हो जाना है। पाश्चात्य शिक्षा के पीछे भागने के कारण न तो शिक्षकों में गुरुतर भाव विकसित हुआ है और न ही छात्रों में गुरुओं के प्रति सम्मान। आवश्यकता है छात्रजन गुरुओं का सम्मान करें।

31 नवविवाहित जोड़ों ने ली समकित :- गुरुपूर्णिमा के पावन अवसर पर प्रथम बार आयोजित समकित ( गुरुमंत्र) प्रदान किया श्रमण संघीय सलाहकार श्री दिनेश मुनि ने। उपस्थित जनमेदनी के समक्ष सलाहकार दिनेश मुनि ने 31 नवविवाहित जोड़ों को सामूहिक रूप से मकित गुरुमंत्र प्रदान किया। जिससे सभागार 'जैनम जयति शासनम् के जयकारों से गूंज उठा। From : Pushpendra Muni, Shri Tarak Guru Jain Granthalaya, Udaipur, E-Mail: tguru1966@gmail.com

NAKEDNESS AMONGST JAIN SAINTS IS A VIRTUE OF JAINISM

Nakedness is a virtue of not only Jainism but in almost every religion of the world. Nakedness is the glowing example of socialism and APRIGRAH (Possession less) of a very high order. Naked Jain saints present an example of socialism and aprigrahvad denouncing the love and possession of worldly wealth and essentials of very high order by discarding gold, silver, money other valuables and even this necessary to protect his body. Nirgranth Muni due to being simple and devoid of sexual desires needs no clothes. Due to their unshaken belief that body is the main cause of all evils and is different from soul, so they do not love their body and therefore they do not wear clothes to protect it. They are far off from attachment love, sexual desires and physical beauty so do not adorn cloths. They think when we took birth naked and will go naked after death then where is the necessity to adorn clothes and perform evil acts in between the two. Nirgranth Muni due to discarding internal as well as external attachments discarded clothes also. Therefore all of us see with reverence those who are actual image of Ahimsa, truth, celibacy (Brahmchary) and Aprigrah. we must not hate or criticize by seeing them.

RESTORED TO ITS FORMER GLORY, 800 YEAR-OLD IN MOOBBIDRI WAITS FOR RAIN

An 800-year-old tank in Moodbidri town, also called the Jain Kashi, recognised as a national monument by the Archaeological Survey of India has been fully restored to its 13th century glory. Thanks to the initiative of the ASI, the tank is expected to hold water this monsoon, after a hiatus of over 80 years. The tank, built eight centuries ago by Jain chieftains, was locally known as 'Bhatrakere.' The ASI prefers to call it the 'Ancient Tank'. The existence of the tank goes back to the 13th century AD. It coincides with the discovery of the Dhavala Trilogy documents of the Jain Tirthankaras.

The Bettakere was earlier known as 'Bhattaraka kere' (Bhattarakas are chiefs of the Jain monasteries); this tank was reserved for the use of the Bhattarakas. Bhatrakere was built on a one-acre land, and it was about 35-40 feet deep. It used to hold water perennially, and there are records in the mutt to show that the tank was used by the Bhattarakas for ritual purposes. "Restoration work was undertaken such that the original masonry was left untouched, as far as possible. The walls of the tank now are as they were when the tank was originally made. It is dressed in laterite stone, custom-cut from local quarries. Stones were wedged together by sheer alignment, without using any cementing agents. ## NEERAJ MEHTA TO HEAD ICAI CHAIR IN TORONTO, CANADA

A new chairperson has been elected to head the Toronto chapter of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (ICAI). Neeraj Mehta, a Chartered Accountant (CA) from India, currently working as a Financial Planner and Investment Advisor in Toronto, was voted to power last week with unanimous consent to the Board of the Toronto chapter. The Certified Financial Planner has worked in many countries including Canada, Saudi Arabia, Bahrain and India. He has a B.Com Honours degree from the University of Delhi and has completed Canadian Investment Management focused on consulting, investment and commercial banking. The new Chairman's first priority will be to increase membership and ensure that more and more Indian CAs in the country participate in the activities of the Chapter. "There are currently around 700 Indian Chartered Accountants living in the Greater Toronto area, out of which 200 are members of the Toronto chapter," said Mehta. "It will be our endeavour that every Indian CA from India benefits from networking and professional development opportunities through our Chapter."

The Toronto chapter formed in 2006, an alumni association for members of ICAI living in Canada, also has a mandate to interact with professional bodies in Canada. "Part of our mandate is to liaise with the professional bodies in Canada like Canadian Institute of Chartered Accountants (CICA), Institute of Chartered Accountants of Ontario (ICAO) and others to increase and enhance the awareness of ICAI and its members to eventually get full reciprocity," said Mehta. Earlier this year, in a historic move, ICAI also signed a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) with the Canadian Institute of Chartered Accountants (CICA) on reciprocal membership arrangements for Chartered Accountants from Canada and India. According to the MOU, an ICAI member who holds a recognized university degree will be eligible to become a Canadian CA by passing the Canadian Uniform Evaluation (UFE) and meeting the profession's experience requirements. Individuals with a Canadian CA designation will be eligible to become an ICAI member by passing the ICAI's examinations in corporate and allied laws and tax. "This is a significant step in the journey towards achieving full reciprocity in the future for which both the Institutes will continue to work together," says Mehta.

CERTIFICATE COURSE IN MANUSCRITOLGY JOINTLY ORGANISED

In the absence of appropriate scholars, a large number of manuscripts in the form of a rich treasure have remained stored unpublished in Gyan-bhandars, Institutions and Universities in India. It is estimated that about a crore manuscripts are scattered at different places and more significant is the fact that about one and half lakh of Indian manuscripts have been stored for years in South Asia and other Asian countries while sixty thousand of them are believed to be stored in European countries. In the state of Gujarat itself it is estimated that there are about twenty thousand manuscripts stored at different places for years. Out of these one crore manuscripts, only fifteen lakh have been catalogued while the rest have not even been classified.

Recently, under the joint auspices of three organisations, a certificate course of fifteen days was organised which covered two main areas namely, script-reading and script-editing. The three organisations which jointly organised the course were the Institute of Jainology (London and India), Bhandarkar Oriental Research Institute (Pune) and Shri Mahavir Jain Aradhana Kendra (Koba). The students who had registered themselves for the course were imparted theoretical and practical training, both. The course was conducted at the Gujarat Vishwakosh Bhavan in Ahmedabad. The course was inaugurated by Sheth Shri Shrenikbhai Kasturbhai while the chief guest at the function was Padmabhushan Madhusudan Dhaki who emphasised in his speech the importance of the study of manuscripts in various of its aspects. ## AHIMSA, VEGETARIANISM AND ANIMAL PROTECTION

PRODUCTION OF UK'S MOST EXPENSIVE "AHIMSA MILK" TO BE EXPANDED

Production of the most expensive pint of milk in the UK will be expanded after Hare Krishna farmers in Aldenham agreed a deal with a Kent dairy. Ahimsa milk, costing £2.40 per litre, or £1.70 a pint, is currently produced at Bhaktivedanta Manor, in Hilfield Lane, Aldenham, but officials at the temple have secured a deal to increase production. The Lotus Trust, which manages sales of the produce through its Ahimsa Milk Foundation, has agreed a deal with Common Work Organic Dairy, in Kent, to produce more. Customers in Watford will be able to order the dairy product straight to their door, via a subscription, when production begins in July. The extraordinary produce costs more than double the price of organic milk due to the special treatment the pampered cows receive before and during milking. The animals, considered holy by the Hare Krishna faith, are massaged during the process and scented candles and soothing music add to the calming atmosphere. No animals are ever slaughtered and elderly cows are given retirement to a sanctuary at approximately 13 years old, safe in the knowledge a pension scheme, derived from milk sales, will support them into their later years. Approximately 65p from every litre sold goes towards the animal's retirement fund, which covers hospice and vet costs. Sita Rama Das, director of the Lotus Trust, said: "It has been a lot of effort to get here and we're happy to provide this service to the public. We are very excited about how this project will develop in the future. "The Lotus Trust has been campaigning for better treatment of cows, and all money gained from this venture will be invested to promote care and better welfare for the animals." पिछले कुछ दिनों से साधु जीवन के फेसबुक पर आने के बारे में कई श्रावको के विचार देख- हर आदमी जिस माहोल में रहता है, अथवा जीता है, उसके विचारों पर उस माहोल की छाप होना कोई नई बात नहीं है. जैन धर्म में साधु एवं श्रावको सभी के लिए जीवन शैली के नियम हैं, पर दुर्भाग्य से उन पर खरा उतरना सबके लिए आज के ज़माने में संभव नहीं रहा है. समय समय पर समाज में उसमें सुधार होते रहे. भगवान महावीर के समय के बनाये गए नियमों में तो इतना परिवर्तन आ गया है की मूल नियमों की मौलिकता खतम ही हो गयी है. समय के अंतराल में तत्कालीन धर्माचार्यों ने कई वांछित कारणों से कई परिवर्तनों को सहज ही स्वीकार कर लिया, तो कुछ में मतभेद होने पर संप्रदायो का विभाजन भी होता रहा. आज तक केवल अकेले महावीर के कितने गच्छ बने हैं और कितने विद्यमान हैं. इसके बारे में आप सब जानते हैं. विचारों का मतभेद ही केवल इसका कारण नहीं रहा है, और भी कारण रहे हैं. उस समय से आजतक जो भी परिवर्तन आये हैं, उसे हम किसी न किसी रूप में जाने अनजाने में स्वीकार करते आये हैं. पुराने समय में साधु समुदाय पैदल ही नंगे पैर विहार करता था. पर आज साधुओं का उपयोग हो रहा है, जुते पहनना भी कही कही मान्य हो गया है, तो दिगंबर साधु तो अभी भी दिगंबर ही हैं. इलेक्ट्रिक साधुओं का उपयोग कहीं पर मान्य है तो कहीं पर अमान्य है. ये केवल उदाहरण मात्र हैं. और भी कई विभिन्ताये अपने धर्म में विद्यमान हैं. जो भी हैं, सत्य है, हमारा तो केवल इतना कहना है की आप क्या मान्यताये मानते हैं या नहीं मानते हैं. आपका उद्देश्य केवल धर्म की प्रभावना ही होना चाहिये. धर्म की प्रभावना के लिए यदि साधु लोग फेसबुक का सदुपयोग करते हैं तो गलत नहीं हैं.

हो सकता है कि कई लोग इस विचार से सहमत नहीं होंगे, मेरा तो उनसे निवेदन है कि यदि आधुनिक युग में हमें आगे रहना है, तो खुले दिमाग से ही जीना पड़ेगा, चाहे वो परिवार का मामला हो, या समाज का या देश का. समय के साथ सीमा के अंदर हमें परिवर्तन स्वीकार करने हैं. नई टेक्नोलोजी का धर्म प्रचार एवं प्रभावना में सदुपयोग करने में मुझे कोई बुराई नजर नहीं आती.

NEW BOOKS ON JAINISM

ACHARYA VIDYASAGAR'S BOOK "SILENT EARTH" PRESENTED TO PRESIDENT

New Delhi, The first copy of "The Silent Earth", English translation of the Hindi epic poem "Mukamati" authored by Jain saint poet Acharya Vidyasagar was presented to President Pratibha Devisingh Patil at the Rashtrapati Bhavan. The epic presents the Jain religious philosophy and spirituality by making the soil (Mati) the subject matter as it is from the base clay that the potter artistically crafts the sacred pitchers worthy of worship. He kneads the soil, crushes it, removes impurities and provides the requisite shape at his wheel and then bakes it in a furnace. The process is used as a metaphor for the journey of the soul to attain liberation from the bondage of "Karma" and advance towards a stage of perfect purification.

During the course of the 488-page work, references are made to modern scientific trends, about the destructive power of the atom and faith as the saviour. "Over and above, the machine is thundering, beneath it, the holy incantation is being sung, the one is a killer, the other is a saviour..." goes the poem. A reference to terrorism too comes up. "Till terrorism is alive, This earth can't take the breath of peace," says the Acharya. At another place, the author says about elevation of the soul. "Pay homage to humility which is the mother of eminence..." Among the recurring symbols used in the epic are Mukamati, the heroine as a symbol of the recurrence the life cycle, the potter-artisan, a symbol of the "Mahamuni", the great ascetic who moulds the feelings, thoughts and conduct of a votary householder (the hero) to advance on the true path of spiritualism. The book is published by Bharatiya Jnanpith, E-Mail: sales@jnanpith.net and priced at Rs 350, has been translated into English by Mr. Lal Chandra Jain (Ex Lecturer, Varni Jain Inter Collage, 39/625 Aalok Bhawan, Chhatrasalpur,

LAUNCH OF JAIN STUDIES PROGRAM AT CLAYTON LINCOLN UNIVERSITY ON SEPTEMBER 6, 2011.

This is an historic event for Jain academic studies and for the Jain community. The convocation event will be televised by national media such as by PBS and the LA Times. Mrs. Pramodaben Chitrabhanu will do the Manglacharan. In addition, several Jain community leaders, Jain scholars and senior university officials will also speak and welcome the Jain partnership with Claremont Lincoln University.

GREAT MEN'S VIEW ON JAINISM

"In conclusion let me assert my conviction that Jainism is an original system, quite distinct and independent from all others; and that therefore it is of great importance for the study of philosophical thoughts and religious life in ancient India." - Dr. Herman Jacobi.

"What would be the condition of the Indian Sanskrit literature if the contribution of the Jains were removed? The more I study Jain literature the more happy and wonder struck I am." - Dr. Hertel, Germany.

"Jainism is of a very high order. Its important teachings are based upon science. The more the scientific knowledge advances the more that Jain teachings will be proven." - L. P. Tassetori, Italy.

"I adore so greatly the principles of the Jain religion, that I would like to be reborn in a Jain community." - George Bernard Shaw.

"Lofty ideas and high ascetic practices are found in Jainism. It is impossible to know the beginning of Jainism." - Major-General Forlong.

"The Jains have written great masterpieces only for the benefit of the world." - Dr. Hertel, Germany.

"I say with conviction that the doctrine for which the name of Lord Mahavir is glorified nowadays is the doctrine of Ahimsa. If anyone has practiced to the fullest extent and has propagated most the doctrine of Ahimsa, it was Lord Mahavira." - Mahatma Gandhi.

"Mahavira proclaimed in India that religion is a reality and not a mere social convention. It is really true that salvation can not be had by merely observing external ceremonies. Religion cannot make any difference between man and man." - Dr. Rabindranath Tagore.

"We learn from scriptures (Sashtras) and commentaries that Jainism is existing from beginningless time. This fact is indisputable and free from difference of opinion. There is much historical evidence on this point." - Lokamanya Bala Gangadhar Tilak.

"Jainism has contributed to the world the sublime doctrine of Ahimsa. No other religion has emphasized the importance of Ahimsa and carried its practice to the extent that Jainism has done. Jainism deserves to become the universal religion because of its Ahimsa doctrine." - Justice Ranglekar, Bombay High Court.

"The Jain Sadhu leads a life which is praised by all. He practices the vratas and rites strictly and shows to the world the way one has to go in order to realize the atma (soul). Even the life of a Jain householder is so faultless that India should be proud of him." - Dr. Satischandra Vidhya Bhushan.

"The right of welcoming the delegates of the universal peace organization belongs to the Jains only. Because Ahimsa alone contributes to the establishment of universal peace. Tirthankaras, the propounders of Jainism, preached to the world the Ahimsa doctrine. Therefore, who else except the followers of Bhagavan Parsvanath and Mahavira can preach universal peace?" - Dr. Radha Vinodpal.

"There is nothing wonderful in my saying that Jainism was in existence long before the Vedas were composed." - Dr. S. Radhakrishnan, Vice-President, India.

"Truly speaking, Jainism is an independent and original religion, for it is neither Hinduism nor Vedic religion, but ofcourse it is an aspect of Indian life, culture, and philosophy." - Shri Jawaharlal Nehru, Prime Minister, India.

"I am not Rama. I have no desire for material things. Like Jina I want to establish peace within myself." - Yoga Vasishta, Chapter 15, Sloka 8 the saying of Rama.

"O Arhan! You are equipped with the arrow of Vastuswarpa, the law of teaching, and the ornaments of the four infinite qualities. O Arhan! You have attained omniscient knowledge in which the universe is reflected. O Arhan! You are the protector of all the Souls (Jivas) in the world. O Arhan! The destroyer of kama (lust)! There is no strong person equal to you." -- Yajur Veda, Chapter 19, Mantra 14.

JAIN COSMOLOGY

Jains do not accept the theory that there is someone or some power as a creator of the universe. The Jain theory is that the universe has no beginning or end. It is traced to jiva and ajiva, the two everlasting, uncreated, independent and coexisting categories. Consciousness is jiva. That which has no consciousness is ajiva. There are five substances of a jiva:

Dharma	the medium of motion
Adharma	the medium of rest
Akasha	space
Pudgala	matter
Kala	time

Pudgala (matter) has form and consists of individual atoms (paramanu) and conglomerates of atoms (skandha) which can be seen, heard, smelt, tasted and/or touched. According to Jains, energy, or the phenomena of sound, darkness, shade, heat, light and the like, is produced by conglomerates of atoms.

The jiva (soul) has no form but, during its worldly career, it is vested with a body and becomes subject to an inflow of karmic 'dust' (asravas). These are the subtle material particles that are drawn to a soul because of its worldly activities. The asravas bind the soul to the physical world until they have brought about the karmic result when they fall away 'like ripe fruit' by which time other actions have drawn more asravas to the soul.

With the exception of the Arihants (the Ever-Perfect) and the Siddhas (the Liberated), who have dispelled the passions which provide the 'glue' for the asravas, all souls are in karmic bondage to the universe. They go through a continuous cycle of death and rebirth in a personal evolution that can lead at last to moksha (eternal release). In this cycle there are countless souls at different stages of their personal evolution; earth- bodies, water-bodies, fire-bodies, air-bodies, vegetable-bodies, and mobile bodies ranging from bacteria, insects, worms, birds and larger animals to human beings, infernal beings and celestial beings.

The Jain evolutionary theory is based on a grading of the physical bodies containing souls according to the degree of sensory perception. All souls are equal but are bound by varying amounts of asravas (karmic particles) which is reflected in the type of body they inhabit. The lowest form of physical body has only the sense of touch. Trees and vegetation have the sense of touch and are therefore able to experience pleasure and pain, and have souls. Mahavira taught that only the one who understood the grave demerit and detriment caused by destruction of plants and trees understood the meaning and merit of reverence for nature. Even metals and stones might have life in them and should not be dealt with recklessly.

Above the single-sense jivas are micro-organisms and small animals with two, three or four senses. Higher in the order are the jivas with five senses. The highest grade of animals and human beings also possess rationality and intuition (manas). As a highly evolved form of life, human beings have a great moral responsibility in their mutual dealings and in their relationship with the rest of the universe. It is this conception of life and its eternal coherence, in which human beings have an inescapable ethical responsibility that made the Jain tradition a cradle for the creed of environmental protection and harmony. ## SKY IS THE LIMIT FOR OUR POWERS: SUPREME COURT

New Delhi: Amidst criticism of judicial activism, the Supreme Court asserted that sky is the limit for exercising its extraordinary constitutional powers to pass any order in the interest of justice, even if it means bypassing statutory provisions. A bench of justices J. M. Panchal and H L Gokhale passed the ruling while restoring the charge under Section 498A (harassment of wife) by husband or other family members against a police officer A Subash Babu on the complaint of his second wife. The apex court rejected the AP high court's reasoning that since marriage of the accused with another woman during the subsistence of the first marriage was void, the second wife cannot lodge a complaint under Section 498A. "Article 136 is a special jurisdiction. It is residuary power.

It is extraordinary in its amplitude. The limits of Supreme Court when it chases injustice, is the sky itself. Further, the powers under Article 136 can be exercised by the Supreme Court, in favour of a party even suo motu when the court is satisfied that compelling grounds for its exercise exist," Justice Panchal writing the judgement observed. Under Article 136 the apex court can grant permission to a person to appeal against any order/judgment of the high court or any subordinate court or tribunal. The apex court further said that in bigamy cases, the magistrate can take cognisance of the offence on the basis of a police report also and it was not necessary that there should be direct complaint from victim or some other family member.

95 PERCENT BENEFITS OF MINORITIES GO TO SIKHS AND JAINS -MAULANA ABDUL HAMEED

New Delhi: Maulana Abdul Hameed No'mani, secretary of Jamiatul Ulama-e Hind said, while talking to media persons here that Delhi State Minorities Commission and Minorities Financial Development Corporation etc. are simply to befool Muslims because Muslims have not benefited from them in any way. Rather, he said, only people belonging to Sikh and Jain communities are deriving the benefits from all the welfare schemes set up and meant for Muslims.

He said that inclusion of Sikhs and Jains among minorities itself is beyond comprehension, adding that "minorities" can be declared those communities which have their own personal laws but Sikhs and Jains do not have their personal laws. He said that the Ministry for Minority Affairs was created at the Centre to identify and understand the problems and difficulties of Muslims and for their solution and progress but Muslims are not getting any benefit from this ministry also.

He said that the government had appointed Sachar Committee to assess the situation, problems and difficulties of Muslims but after the submission of its report, the then minister of minorities affairs Abdur Rahman Antulay changed the word 'Muslim' to 'minority'. Today, he said, the position is that 95 percent benefits of the schemes made for the welfare and development of minorities are derived by Sikhs and Jains whereas Muslims are not getting the benefits of even the remaining 5%. He said that if the government wants to take Muslims out of backwardness, it should prepare schemes not in the name of minorities but solely in the name of Muslims.

On the other hand, nationalised banks, which are all government banks, have blacklisted Delhi's Muslim-populated localities like Jamia Nagar, Jama Masjid, Seelampur, Mustafabad etc. and because of this, Muslims do not get loans from them. He demanded that the Reserve Bank of India should issue strict instructions to all banks in this connection so that Muslims also should derive benefits from banks.
